2. [REDACTED] Dorothy Fosdick, Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations staff, called and asked if there was any new information on the new SS-9 holes. She said Senator Jackson had asked her about this. After checking with Mr. Duckett, I told her that we had some material that had just been received but was still being worked on. She asked if this would be processed in a couple of days and I told her I was quite certain it would. She asked us to let her know if there was anything significant.
